Happy Thursday!

Well, last week I said I wouldn't get sick, but obviously that didn't hold true. In my 10 years of teaching I have never been this sick. I am so ready to come back. I miss the kids... sniff, sniff

However, I couldn't have asked for a better class to put up with me being out. From what I have heard they have been wonderful with the three different substitutes that they have had. If all goes well today and I continue on the mend I hope to be back tomorrow.

Halloween...

This fun and exciting holiday is next week. The students will be able to change into their costumes between 1:45-2:00. The annual Halloween parade starts at 2:00. After the parade will be our classroom party. As far as costumes go please make sure they do not depict violence or evil in any way. No swords or weapons either. Costumes that depict Saints are strongly encouraged. Superheros, friendly witches, dragons, friendly ghosts, Harry Potter, etc... are okay. If you have any questions please ask

Passport...

The students will be tested on their October Passport countries on Tuesday. I hope that everyone has been studying. If your child needs a new map, I have extras hanging up on my white board.

Conferences...

Thank you for returning your conference forms. I am looking forward to meeting with each and everyone of you.

Walk-With-Jesus Walk-a-thon...

If you have not returned your pledges please get them in.
